DISCLAIMER: This book is a work of private devotion. It explores the mystery of intercession and the Communion of Saints from a theological perspective.

The purpose of this work is not to establish new doctrines nor to propose cult figures outside the Catholic faith. This Psalter does not create saints or characters; it is, in essence, a path of prayer designed to deepen Christian charity toward the souls in purgatory and personal purification. The author submits at all times to the definitive judgment of the Ecclesiastical Authority.

The Psalter of the Double Purification was born from a real need following the truths revealed in the book Navigating Purgatory under the Beacon of the Communion of Saints. That work explores the soul's journey to Purgatory, describing how God's Love guides those who wait. There, we discovered that prayer is not passive; it is a bridge of light. It connects our world with Purgatory and allows charity to become sustenance for those who can no longer ask anything for themselves.

Why is it called Double Purification? Because this process does not begin after death. It begins here and now, in the life of the one who prays. While you offer your prayer to relieve the souls, that same Divine Fire acts upon you. It cleanses your attachments and your errors. It is a sacred exchange: by helping another, you heal your own spirit before the final encounter with the Creator.

The Psalter is more than a simple prayer; it is a tool to focus your faith. By reciting it, you become an Administrator of Grace. You send relief to the souls and seal a pact of mutual aid with them. Thus, your effort is not lost in the void. It becomes a force that shortens the distance between the miseries of this world and the glory of Heaven.

Through this practice, the Wall of Light is raised. It is a decree of protection for your life, your family, and your home. The logic is simple: by caring for the rest of the Blessed Souls, they become sentinels of your peace out of gratitude. The Psalter is the manual of an eternal alliance. In it, silence in the face of offenses and surrender at the Altar of Mercy become refuges against evil.

This path teaches us that God's Fire is not a punishment. It is a heat that devours selfishness so that charity may shine. By praying the psalms each day, fears turn into strength, and we help souls reach the light faster. This power comes from the Devotional of the Medal of the Double Purification. It is a guide to stop repeating empty phrases and start using language to transform reality. In prayer, you assume your identity as a Guardian of the Altar (the living bridge between the world and God's Mercy). You have the authority that love gives to gather light and deliver it to those who need it most.

In this practice, we call Purgatory the Crucible of Love. This changes the idea of punishment into a desired purification. The Crucible is the state where the soul feels the Heat of God and decides to release the rust of its attachments (what St. Catherine of Genoa called herrumbre). By invoking the Crucible, you ask that this fire acts today within you - that it exchanges your selfishness for generosity.

Finally, everything is sustained by the Wall of Light. It is not a wall of stone, but a spiritual shield. It is a space where envy and conflict dissolve like ash. A perfect alliance is created: we send the Sustenance of Grace (the nourishment of our prayer) to the Crucible and, in exchange, the Blessed Souls protect us. While we care for their path to Heaven, they care for our steps on Earth.

The Psalter is the master key. It transforms every whisper into a balm and every day into a banquet of peace.

INITIAL PRAYER

Lord, I place these words before You with all my heart. As I gaze upon the beauty of Your creation, may I understand that in Your Love nothing is lost, but everything is transformed and refined to reach You.

May these prayers accompany my day, guard my body and my soul, and bring relief and hope to those who have already departed and wait to meet You. As a servant of this space of prayer, I ask that every word be a comfort to those who suffer and a shield that protects my peace and my home. Amen.

INVOCATIONS FOR THE CONDITION OF THE SOUL

I present these intentions to You, O God, while the Divine Fire consumes the attachments of my brothers and sisters in Purgatory, and You help me consume my own faults as well:

V. For those who already feel the closeness of Christ's embrace…
R. My Jesus, mercy!

V. For those who still feel the weight of their faults and their debts of love in Purgatory…
R. My Jesus, mercy!

V. For those who held authority on earth, that the love of God may cleanse their pride and they may now discover the true wealth of being humble…
R. My Jesus, mercy!

V. For those who neglected their spiritual life and today need our prayer to find the way...
R. My Jesus, mercy!

V. For those who departed suddenly, in moments of fragility or without the comfort of a farewell...
R. My Jesus, mercy!

V. For the souls of our parents, ancestors, siblings, and all those who helped us...
R. My Jesus, mercy!

V. For the most forgotten souls, those who have no one to whisper their name before You at the Threshold of Light...
R. My Jesus, mercy!

V. For the souls who in life loved the Sacred Heart, that they may soon reach the banquet of peace...
R. My Jesus, mercy!

V. For the souls who most long to see You and for those who need to strengthen their trust in Your Love...
R. My Jesus, mercy!

V. For those who suffered injustices and whose patience will now be rewarded with eternal rest...
R. My Jesus, mercy!

Let us pray: May these pleas seal the relief of my brothers and sisters and strengthen my own Wall of Light. Amen.

RESPONSORY OF MUTUAL AID

(The covenant between us and the Blessed Souls)

V. Blessed souls, who already understand the depth of love that I cannot yet glimpse.
R. Intercede for us, so that the Divine Fire may transform our hearts this very day.

V. Beloved souls, who sigh for the definitive encounter, receive our prayer as a balm for your thirst.
R. Obtain for us the grace to live always at the Altar of Mercy.

V. May your peace be our teaching and our surrender be your joy.
R. United in Love, let us walk together toward the Eternal Light.

V. Grant, O Lord, unto all souls eternal rest.
R. And let perpetual light shine upon them.

V. May they rest in peace.
R. Amen

TO SEAL THE ALTAR OF MERCY

O Mary, Mother of Mercy! We ask that you accompany the souls who are being purified while they wait to enter the Light of Heaven. You, who are like the dawn that announces the sun, ask God that His love may cleanse any fault in us and in our loved ones who have already departed.

Mother, open the gates of Heaven for them and grant them the joy of seeing the face of your Son, Jesus. May our home and our heart be safe from all evil under your protection, and may the relief of our prayers arrive today as a loving comfort to those who still wait for their definitive encounter with God. Amen.

Decrees of Protection

In the name of God, who is the beginning and the end of all power, I raise today a shield of light around my life and my entire family. May His sacred presence seal every door of my soul.

May any ill will, envy, or danger sent against me dissolve into ashes before touching my home. I claim my being as sacred ground, a dwelling place only for God's light and peace. Sheltered by His infinite wisdom, I stand guarded against all shadow, my heart open only to the flow of His grace. Amen.

Invocation To The Guardian Angel:

Guardian Angel, my faithful friend and watcher: you who gaze upon the Father's glory yet know my every frailty, stay close to me when the storm rises. Do not leave my side in the hour of trial. Kindle in me the fire of God's love, so that any evil inclination may be extinguished before the heat of His grace. Be my protective wall and the brake on my impulses. Guide me back to the path of mercy, where my soul finds its true rest. Watch over my steps and do not allow anything to stain the purity of my heart. Amen.

Decrees Against Provocation and Conflict

Lord, You who are the Judge of Truth: place a barrier of protection between my life and the words that try to wound me. Remove from my path every bitter comment and anyone who seeks my fall. May Your Divine Love be like an invisible wall that dissolves offenses before they reach my heart.

If I am insulted, give me the valuable strength of silence; if I am envied, give me the firmness of indifference. May my only response be to take refuge in Your goodness, where evil has no place or invitation. May the noise of conflict not cross the door of my house or enter my thoughts. Amen.

Administration of Wisdom and Grace
Lord, source of all Truth: send a light of Your love upon my mind so that all confusion may vanish. I ask that Your wisdom organize my thoughts and clarify my decisions. When I sit down to study or work, may my effort be transformed into useful knowledge. Angel of my Guard, whisper within me the right answer and keep my hand steady. Amen.

The Great Decree Of Intercession
(To offer the relief of our prayer)

Eternal Father, I offer You all the love and sacrifice of Your Son Jesus for all the souls waiting to enter Heaven, for those who suffer in this world, and for the deceased of my own family. May this prayer be the comfort that heals their wounds and the light that erases their faults, so that they may soon rest in Your peace. May my plea help them regain their place in Your House. Amen.

SPIRITUAL APOTHECARY

In these pages, the Psalms come alive - not as words to be read, but as a balm to heal the heart. We begin this journey within, mending our own wounds until that inner strength rises as a Wall of Light, a sacred shield over our home, our kin, and our quiet peace.

Psalm of Health and the Body

(Inspired by Psalms 23 and 103)

The Lord is my physician; I shall not want. In still waters He grants me rest, breathing new life into my weary spirit. He hushes the noise of my mind. Though I walk through the shadows of fear or the valley of sickness, I shall be unafraid - for You are here, and Your presence is my sanctuary.

You prepare a table of blessing for me to strengthen my weakness and renew my energy. You fill my life with joy and health. Let Your love stream through my being, a holy fire consuming all sickness; wash away the roots of my pain and clothe me in the strength of a soul reborn.

Surely, health and Your favor shall follow me all the days of my life. My entire being is now surrendered to Your care: I ask for a well-being born of Your light and a life that remains forever under Your protection and Your mercy. Amen.

Psalm of Victory

(Inspired by Psalm 133)

How good and tender it is to see brothers united! It is like a gentle oil that brings calm to our spirit. May the fire of God's Spirit transform the pride that separates us and extinguish the words that wound us. May His wisdom cleanse our selfishness so that the clarity of a shared truth may shine.

And once the air between us is clear, let a commitment to unity arise. May no one in this gathering feel excluded or suffer the sadness of not being understood. May the hand of God's mercy be our guide. In this union, the purity of heart shines with all its strength; for where love purifies and prayer unites us, there the victory of God's Love is manifested. Amen.

Psalm of Confidence

(Inspired by Psalm 34)

I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall continually be in my mouth. I sought the Lord, and He answered me; He delivered me from all my fears. Those who look toward His light are radiant. The Angel of the Lord encamps around those who trust in Him, driving away the scarcity, envy, and fear that try to steal our peace.

O, taste and see how gracious the Lord is; blessed is the soul that finds refuge in His embrace. Even if the world experiences need, those who seek God shall lack no good thing. The Lord gathers our fear, transforms it with the strength of hope, and gives us the fortitude needed to remain standing. Your home is protected forever. Amen.

Psalm of Refuge under the Fire

(Inspired by Psalm 91)

You who dwell under the protection of the Most High God, do not fear the dangers of the day nor the darkness of the night. For His love is a fire that surrounds you: a wall of burning light that dissolves the threats hidden in the shadows. Though you see confusion around you, harm shall not reach you, because your soul is sheltered in His protection.

You will see with your own eyes how evil melts like wax before the strength of His cleansing love. He leads you to His peace. Under His wings you will find refuge, and His faithfulness shall be your shield. He not only delivers you from snares but gives you a place of honor where fear no longer exists. Angel of my Guard, watch over this flame and thus my soul shall be safe. Amen.

Psalm of Interior Renewal

(Inspired by Psalm 51)

Have mercy on me, O Lord, according to Your goodness; blot out my faults. Heal my past and cleanse my intentions with the fire of Your Heart. Fill me with the strength of Your Love and I shall be clean; purify me with Your grace and I shall be more radiant than the dawn.

Look not upon my errors, but upon the desire to serve You that is born of my spirit. Create in me a new heart, which shall be like a clean and ready place to meet You. Restore to me the joy of being Your child so that others may also find the way to Your comfort. Amen.

Psalm of Rest and Nightly Confidence

(Inspired by Psalm 4)

Hear me when I call, O God of my life. As night falls, I place all my concerns into Your hands of light. Look into my heart and burn away any resentment or sadness within it. In peace I will lie down and sleep at once, for under Your protection, my rest is sacred.

You have put more joy in my heart than those who seek only riches. I do not fear the darkness, because Your love is the lamp that never goes out in my home. Amen.

Psalm of Protection on the Path

(Inspired by Psalm 121)

I lift up my eyes to the hills: from whence comes my help? My help comes from the Lord. He will not suffer your foot to stumble, nor will the Sentinel who guards your peace under the Seal of Light slumber. The Lord is your protective Wall; He is the fire that dissipates the mist of confusion. He guards your going out and your coming in, your projects and your steps, from this time forth and forevermore. Under the Double Purification, every step is a victory and every return is a Banquet of Peace. Amen.

LET US PRAY:

Carry with you the remembrance that your body is a sacred Temple. May the light of this prayer be an invisible mark that identifies you before God and hides you from any shadow. Go in peace, for the Fire has cleared your path. Amen.

Final Note from the Author: This exercise of piety of the Psalter of the Double Purification is proposed exclusively for the private devotion of the faithful. In accordance with the decrees of the Holy See (especially those of Urban VIII), the author declares that he does not intend in any way to anticipate the judgment of the Ecclesiastical Authority and submits at all times to its decisions. This medal is not an amulet, but a physical reminder of the Communion of Saints and our obligation of charity toward the souls who have preceded us.
